

ASSOCIATION OF LAWYERS FOR ANIMAL WELFARE

The Journal of Animal Welfare Law

SUBSCRIPTION RENEWAL FORM

The Journal of Animal Welfare Law is published tri-annually by the Association of Lawyers for Animal Welfare. It is the only UK journal exclusively dedicated to the body of law that concerns the welfare of animals, including farmed, domesticated and wild animals.

The journal regularly features:

- Legislation update: reports and commentary upon the progress of legislation, including consultation papers, bills and Acts.
- European law: reports and commentary upon proposals from the European Parliament, Council and Commission and other international institutions.
- An issue in focus: in-depth analysis of an area of law or topic with legal implications.
- Case law section: an update on animal welfare related case law, including judicial review of public authorities, and legal decisions with implications for animal welfare
